

www. BurbankChamber.org

Make-up designory honored at open house and award ceremony

Over 400 attendees paid tribute to Make-up designory - MUD - in March at a special open house and awards ceremony. The event was co-sponsored by the Burbank Chamber of Commerce, Gordon Biersch Restaurant and Brewery, Kendall-Jackson, Jaqki's Cake Creations, All Occasion Balloons N Baskets, Coca Cola, The Signmaster, and P.R. Newswire, Los Angeles.

Make-up designory and Tate Holland, School Director; John Bailey, Director of Education; and Karl Zundel, Director of Special Effects Make-Up were recognized by federal, state, and local legislators and organizations for their commitment to education, community service, and human rights.

The school, which has grown from an 800 square foot location to more than 8,200 square feet in three years, was recognized for supporting a wide range of charities and community events. Most recently, MUD provided sponsorship of two students from Diamond Bar Sister City's Stay in School program.

Make-up designory has also participated in a number of community programs, such as the Hollywood Entertainment

Photos by Harvey Branman

Byrd Holland, far left, celebrates Make-Up designory's honors from State Senator Jack Scott, Burbank Vice-Mayor Bob Kramer, and Chamber president Sunder Ramani.

Museum, L.A. County Sheriffs' Juvenile Honors Program, Kid's Day L.A., KIEV's Special Children's Christmas Program & Party, the Santa Clarita Youth Organization, the Burbank International Children's Film Festival, the Deidre Hall Mother's Day Festival, and the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation Walk.

The school and its three founders have also participated in CBS "Running Scared" Education Programs, the March of Dimes, the Revlon Run/Walk, the American Cancer Society Walk, the Mesothelioma Applied Research Fund, the Toluca Lake Lions Charity, the Toluca Lake Garden Club, and the Charter Oak Elementary School Benefit Silent Auction.

Make-up designory is one of the world's leading schools of Make-Up Artistry with students from around the world. MUD graduates comprise the creme de la creme of professional Make-Up Artists in the motion picture, stage, fashion, and beauty industries.

Tate Holland, proud president of Make-up designory, shares a moment with father, Byrd Holland.